Phi Theta Kappa... The Key Advantage

PHI THETA KAPPA
HONOR SOCIETY

www.ptk.org

Phi Theta Kappa recognizes and rewards high-achieving students and provides opportunities through Honors in Action to develop such critical skills as problem solving, project planning, team building, effective communication and conflict resolution. These skills can give you a competitive edge when planning for transfer or applying for jobs. However, members are not required to participate in chapter activities or student development programs.

"I love Phi Theta Kappa because it allows a person to gain personal growth in terms of leadership skills and the ability to learn to be more effective as a team player. Also, getting to meet people at the Regional and International levels is so awesome! You get the impression that you're making friendships for life with people who will change the world."

"I love Phi Theta Kappa because of the community.... I like how we're all incredibly different, but we all have that shared characteristic of academic excellence and of being a part of Phi Theta Kappa. We all have different majors, different life paths, but we all share the same goals through Phi Theta Kappa."

Also, I love how that Phi Theta Kappa stamp on your transcript gets you into schools you never thought possible. I've found that being a Phi Theta Kappa member really influences how college academic advisors look at you..."

"I joined Phi Theta Kappa for the honor that it gives to those who have worked hard enough to achieve it. I put much effort into my studies and Phi Theta Kappa recognizes that more so than any other association. I am happy I chose to join Phi Theta Kappa."
